

The tale of two MP's

Gordana Čomić

Deputy Speaker

National Assembly Republic of Serbia

People

(because politics is all about people)

- Three “UN”:
  - 1) UNcertainty (that’s what people feel about future)
  - 2) UNhappy (that’s how people feel about their system)
  - 3) UNwilling (that’s how people feel when offered activism and change)

First MP

- No need for any change
- Politics is all about the power and money
- Legislative is for me, not for the people
- Don't really care what people feel and think, but knows how to win elections
- “bad MP's? that's who others are, not me”
- Fake elite

Second MP

- Change everyday, learn the rules, use the rules, change the rules
- Politics is there for dialogue and development
- Legislative is for everybody to be involved
- Caring is winning
- “am I a good MP?”
- In the age of information ignorance is choice

Networking NARSerbia (listening to the people)

- Green parliamentary network (NGO's + MP + all parties + public)
- Women parliamentary network (NGO's + MP+ all parties + public)
- GOPAC
- MP Coordinators for Brussels dialogue
Belgrade-Priština
- Open Parliament

Changing social agenda

- Strategy for common agenda + Committee
NGO Chair + initiatives)
- Working cross-party
- Staying different searching for similarities
- Building trust
- Establishing dialogue for development and change
- Rule of law is good for people

Women

- 2013 – WPN of 84 MP's + NGO + academia + women from media working together
  - 1) Combating violence, empowering women in economy, women's health, representation – laws changed, gender sensitive budget, local women involvement, SEE regional cooperation

WPN Blog

- 1) Women's Platform for Development (NGO)

Green

- Parliamentary Group
- NGO's present at the committee meetings
(Aarhus Convention)
- Sustainable development
- SDGS UN
- European integration

Democracy is in a need for new paradigme

- Open government is a tool
- Civil society is a necessity
- Dialogue is indispensable

The Tale of two MP's
should have a happy end
